

Dear Red Class

We hope you and your families are all well. We've had more sunshine this week and we hope you've been able to get outside to enjoy it. Here are our messages for you:

Hi from Christina - I went into school last Thursday, and popped into Red Class to pick something up. It was very quiet and empty without you all there, but all your lovely work is still up on the walls, so that cheered me up.

This weekend my family and I went on a long cycle ride into central London. It was very strange as there were hardly any cars or people and most of the shops and offices were all closed. We cycled through Chinatown, Piccadilly Circus and Trafalgar Square.

My children have been helping me with the cooking this week, Finn made some pizza dough and Esther made some cinnamon rolls, and both were delicious. Tabitha is going to make some bread next week, so I'll let you know how that goes.

Hi from Becca – I hope you have all been busy, enjoying the sunshine before the colder weather arrives this week! I have been excited about how my vegetable patch is growing. Look at all the peas and beans starting to grow.

We had an exciting time a few days ago when a huge swarm of bees settled on a tree at the end of our road. We watched (along with lots of our neighbours) as a beekeeper came to take them to a local allotment where they can find a new home. We were a bit worried, and kept our windows shut until they had gone as I didn't want them to make a home inside my house! Look how many there were!

Hi from Duygu - I am missing you all, and I hope you are all safe and well. I have been busy in my garden. I have been cleaning the decking and planting some beautiful plants. I have also been busy in the kitchen making delicious food for breakfast, halloumi cake and Mende lentil soup. Have you ever eaten halloumi cake or/and Mende lentil soup?

I hope you enjoy listening to us read chapters of the Iron Man to you, it is Chapter 2 this week and Christina is reading it. We look forward to seeing your work on the story.

Birthdays

Unfortunately, we have missed being able to celebrate the 7th birthdays of Elsie, Leon, and Domenico. I want to wish a very happy belated birthday to all of you. I hope you all had a fun day at home and we will have to celebrate all the missed birthdays when we go back to school!
